Details

On 2/04/2011, approximately 0330 hours, a Gilroy Police Officer was conducting a proactive patrol check within his assigned beat, in the 7100 block of Camino Arroyo. While the Officer was on a non-related citizen contact, he observed a blue Toyota truck exiting from a business parking lot. The Officer observed the vehicle's driver attempt to conceal his face from the Officer while the vehicle passed by.

A short time later, the Gilroy Police Department received a call of a vehicle burglary which just occurred. The witness said they saw a blue truck enter the parking lot with its headlights off. The truck parked near the victim vehicle and the driver exited. The witness lost sight of the driver but then saw the suspect exiting from the victim vehicle. The suspect was carrying a bag and wearing gloves. The suspect entered into the blue truck and left the parking lot. The vehicle description given by the witness matched the vehicle the Officer had just seen.

The Toyota was located at a nearby gas station and the driver was contacted. The witness to the crime positively identified the driver, Mark Oliveira as the person who committed the burglary.

A Parole Search was conducted at Oliveira's residence where the items taken in the vehicle burglary were located. Additional items from a vehicle burglary in January were also located at Oliveira's place of residence.

The victims' property was returned and Oliveira was transported to the Santa Clara County Jail and booked on charges of Burglary, Possession of Stolen Property and a Parole Hold.
