DESCRIPTION

- 7a. Architectural style: Queen Anne
- 7b. Briefly describe the present physical appearance of the site or structure and describe any major alterations from its original condition:

This is a single story structure with a combination roofline. A hipped style is extended to the front with a gable over a slanted bay. The gable end is decorated with fish scale shingles and incised barge board. The corners above the bay have curved brackets and panel work, and the recessed porch is supported by posts. This structure is sheathed in shiplapped horizontal board and appears to be almost original condition.

SIGNIFICANCE

19. Briefly state historical and/or architectural importance (include dates, events, and persons associated with the site.)

This example of the Queen Anne Cottage style is one of the nicest in Gilroy. Now used as a private school the structure contributes to the very nice collection of 1800's buildings on Church Street. The commercial use is compatible with the residential quality of Church Street.
