SIGNIFICANCE

19. Briefly state historical and/or architectural importance (include dates, events, and persons associated with the site.)

This distinctive building has had a modern front added. Built in the 1870's as a livery stable, it was owned by William Brannon. Brannon was a long time Gilroy resident who had livery stables in various parts of the town. Behind the modern stucco addition at the front, the original structure is intact with doors and windows typical of its period. The building is now owned by Elmer Young of Gilroy and houses is business, Young Signs.
