DESCRIPTION

- 7a. Architectural style: Queen Anne
- 7b. Briefly describe the present physical appearance of the site or structure and describe any major alterations from its original condition:

A one story structure of basically square structure, with additions in the rear. The entrance is on the end of the structure, rather unusual for a Queen Anne style. A projecting three sided bay is centered in the facade and capped with a triangle framed gable. The gable is filled with fish scale shingles while the structure is a ship lap horizontal board. The recessed porch is supported by turned posts. It appears that this house may have been moved prior to 1906 and given a new orientation.
